AUTHOR INDEX
Community Education Journal
Volumes VI Through XIII (July 1978–July 1986)

Adopt-a-school in Oakland, California. IX, 3 (April 1982).

Agnew, John A.
The danger of a neighborhood definition of community. VII, 3 (April 1980).

Alkire, Phil
Does community education training enhance the employability of candidates for school superintendent? XIII, 4 (July 1986).

Allen, Lawrence R.
Comparing competencies: building-level community educators and recreation professionals. VIII, 3 (April 1981).
Informed leadership networking. X, 4 (July 1983).

Almeida, Regina
An inter-American community education network. X, 3 (April 1983).

Axford, Roger W.
A college board election as adult education. VII, 1 (September 1979).

Ayars, Albert L.
An overview of the [learning society] conference. XII, 3 (April 1985).

Bachelor, David L.
Certification would change community education in fundamental ways. XII, 1 (October 1984).
Community education in the 1980s. VIII, 4 (July 1981).
Frank Manley and Loyd Tireman—pioneers in community education. XIII, 3 (April 1986).
An orientation for community education. IX, 4 (July 1982).

Bagin, Don
Marketing your program. VIII, 3 (April 1981).

Banach, William J.
The community survey: a multipurpose tool. VIII, 3 (April 1981).

Belk, Phyllis Green
Taking aim at your audience. VIII, 3 (April 1981).

Bell, Bob
Community education: something new for Arkansas. VI, 3 (December 1978).

Bell, Nathan
Teachers' perceptions of school climate linked to rate of parent participation. XII, 4 (July 1985).

Bennett, John E.
The school media center and the community. XI, 2 (January 1984).

Bennett, Priscilla
The school media center and the community. XI, 2 (January 1984).

Berman, Martin L.
Certification would change community education in fundamental ways. XII, 1 (October 1984).
Community education in the 1980s. VIII, 4 (July 1981).
Frank Manley and Loyd Tireman—pioneers in community education. XIII, 3 (April 1986).
An orientation for community education. IX, 4 (July 1982).

Bernier, Normand R.
Synergy and community education. IX, 2 (January 1982).

Berridge, Robert I.
Regional clusters: a new way to share. XI, 4 (July 1984).

Brennan, Martin
Community and adult education—is the distinction getting blurred in Michigan? XI, 2 (January 1984).

Brockett, Ralph
Keeping up with professional reading is more than a luxury. XIII, 3 (April 1986).

Brody, Celeste M.
Community women: issues, needs, and options. VIII, 2 (January 1981).
NCEA women. IX, 2 (January 1982).

Brookfield, Stephen D.
Community adult education. IX, 3 (April 1982).

Brubaker, C. William
Surplus school space—an opportunity for community education. VII, 2 (January 1980).

Bryant, Donald W.
A total college commitment. VII, 3 (April 1980).

Bryant, Shirley J.
Working with teachers to connect the curriculum and the community. XIII, 2 (January 1986).

Budden, Herbert D.
Training teachers to work with parents. IX, 2 (January 1982).

Burkett, David
A Florida community education program tackles the transportation problems of the elderly. XI, 3 (April 1984).

Burkholz, Yvonne
The HEW community education advisory council: its mission, its members. VIII, 1 (September 1979).

Burnside, Joan
Collaborating to meet community mental health needs. XII, 2 (January 1985).

Butcher, Ronald K.
State aid boosts community school construction. VII, 2 (January 1980).

Caffarella, Rosemary
"Map" your community resources. IX, 1 (October 1981).

Cale, Lettie
School-age child care: the need is clear, and community educators can meet it. XIII, 2 (January 1986).

Calsyn, Robert J.
A community psychologist's view of community education. VIII, 1 (October 1980).

Carakostas, Barbara
The hospice: a caring community. VIII, 1 (October 1980).

Carbone, Robert F.
Program and process in community education: a construct. VII, 2 (January 1980).

Carruthers, Robert
Evaluation in Texas. VI, 5 (June 1979).

Casale, James L.
Involvement is our central purpose. VI, 4 (March 1979).

Castaldi, Ron
A new federal role. IX, 4 (July 1982).

Celeste, Governor Richard F.
School-community partnerships: a role for state government. XII, 1 (October 1984).

Chandler, Linda
Convincing the school board. IX, 1 (October 1981).

Charles, Patricia
An inter-American community education network. X, 3 (April 1983).

Cheeseman, Robert H.
The Pascagoula model: a small urban interagency program. VII, 3 (April 1980).

Childers, John H.
The give and take of criticism. XIII, 3 (April 1986)
Using praise as an organizational tool. XII, 1 (October 1984).

Ching, Doris M.
A community-based teacher education program. XI, 2 (January 1984).

Ciavarella, Michael A.
Elderhostel: a college level experience for the elderly. VI, 5 (June 1979).
The Elderhostel-SAGA connection. IX, 1 (October 1981).

Cirone, William J.
Needed now: a new alliance between community educators and a national citizen participation movement. VI, 3 (December 1978).
Our unfulfilled potential. XI, 4 (July 1982).

Clark, Phillip A.
The centrality of the teacher. X, 1 (October 1982).
Learning and sharing at the world conference. X, 3 (April 1983).

Clark continued
A visit to a community-centered classroom. VI, 1 (July 1978).

Colburn, David E.
Counseling adults. X, 2 (January 1983).

Collins, Michael L.
Communities of the 80s. IX, 1 (October 1981).
The funding game: playing to win. VII, 2 (January 1980).

Commager, Henry Steele
The schools can't do it all. XII, 3 (April 1985).

Conlan-Jordan, Amy
American overseas schools: some lessons returned to their source. XIII, 3 (April 1986).

Cookingham, Frank G.
Dissertations in community education. VIII, 2 (January 1981).
Interagency action: cooperation, coordination, collaboration. VII, 2 (January 1980).

Cook, Dale L.
Community education: the need for a sound theoretical base. XIII, 3 (April 1986).
The curriculum and the community. X, 1 (October 1982).
Interagency action: cooperation, coordination, collaboration. VII, 2 (January 1980).
Public schools and the private sector: taking a closer look. XI, 3 (April 1984).

Cooney, James
An inter-American community education network. X, 3 (April 1983).

Cooperman, Saul
Single parents and schools. IX, 3 (April 1982).

Cox, Paul
How to calculate electrical utility costs. VIII, 4 (July 1981).

Criscuolo, Nicholas P.
Involving the community in the reading program. XI, 1 (October 1983).

Cunliff, Ed
Cooperation saves a community program. XI, 1 (October 1983).
Multi-source funding. IX, 3 (April 1982).

Deaver, Philip F.
Community control: taking back our power. X, 2 (January 1983).
The dilemma of the young. IX, 2 (January 1982).
The implications of Proposition 13, or what, me worry? VI, 1 (July 1978).

Decker, Larry E.
The community education impact project. X, 4 (July 1983).

Decker, Virginia A.
The community education impact project. X, 4 (July 1983).

DeJong, William S.
Planning options with an "ownership" bonus. VII, 2 (January 1980).

Denning, Carsie K.
Community education and energy. VII, 2 (January 1980).

Denton, William H.
The community-based organization as an educational forum. XI, 3 (April 1984).
Rebuilding a sense of community in a

Denton continued
disintegrated neighborhood. VI, 2 (October 1978).
Reconstructionism—a philosophy for community education. X, 2 (January 1983).
Urban school support groups—how they got started, what they do. XIII, 4 (July 1986).

Dickson, David
Is the community school an effective model for neighborhood-based community development? VIII, 2 (January 1981).

Dixon, James D. III
Community education and the urban dilemma. VIII, 1 (October 1980).
"New federalism" just means non-support. X, 1 (October 1982).

Doyle, Patrick M.
Rural community action. X, 3 (April 1983).

Drago, Jack V.
"Theory vs. practice." VII, 3 (April 1980).

Dudley, Charles J.
On the way to process. X, 3 (April 1983).

Edwards, Pat
The Mott Foundation's second 5-year plan. VI, 2 (October 1978).

Ehrbright, Richard M.
On the way to a volunteer program. IX, 3 (April 1982).

Eichelberger, Richard C.
Counseling adults. X, 2 (January 1983).

Eight chiefs talk about their experience with community education. XIII, 2 (January 1986).

Eliason, Nancy Carol
The governors: how to get their attention and support. XIII, 2 (January 1986).

Evans, Joyce
Relevant mathematics for community living. VI, 5 (June 1979).

Fagan, Richard R.
"Help with homework" hotline—a joint venture in Florida. XI, 2 (January 1984).

Fallon, John A. III
How community leaders perceive the issues. VIII, 3 (April 1981).
The community union: power and participation. VII, 3 (April 1980).
The view from OE: a conversation with Julie England. VI, 2 (October 1978).
The voluntary tax. IX, 3 (April 1982).

Fallon, Sidney Lynn Miller
See also Miller, S.L.
Annual report. VIII, 4 (July 1981).
Community education as social action. X, 2 (January 1983).

Fantini, Mario D.
Changing concepts of community education. X, 1 (October 1982).
Changing time and place orientations of the young. XIII, 4 (July 1986).
Community education: participants and participation. VI, 3 (December 1978).
John Dewey's influence on community and nonformal education. XI, 4 (July 1984).
Toward a definition of community education. VII, 3 (April 1980).

Fisher, Howard
Manipulative vs. convivial institutions: the crucial difference. VI, 4 (March 1979).

Fisher, Wayne
School-municipal cooperation. IX, 3 (April 1982).

Fish, Thomas L.
Building a new NCEA. VI, 2 (October 1978).
Modeling community education values. XIII, 1 (October 1985).
Opportunity or insult? X, 2 (January 1983).

Fletcher, Colin
Community schools in Britain. XI, 2 (January 1984).

Foley, Jack
Activist leader or manager? a critical choice in community education. VI, 5 (June 1979).

Forbes, Susan R.
Collaborating to serve the handicapped. XI, 1 (October 1983).

Ford, Sondra
On caterpillars and community education. IX, 1 (October 1981).

Foshay, Arthur W.
The city as teacher. XII, 3 (April 1985).

Foster, Barbara Barrett
Sesame Street comes to Goochland. VIII, 4 (July 1981).

Foster, Rick
Cooperative funding. X, 2 (January 1983).

Fredland, Richard A.
A no-budget program for world affairs education. XI, 2 (January 1984).

Fried, Robby
Beyond survival. IX, 4 (July 1982).
Citizen participation: who participates? who decides? VI, 3 (December 1978).

Gardner, David W.
Communicating with superiors. XIII, 1 (October 1985).

Gardner, John W.
Responsibility networks. VIII, 4 (July 1981).

Gargiulo, Richard M.
Is community education serving the special-needs population? XII, 2 (January 1985).

Garvin, Jack C.
A neighborhood park is born. IX, 1 (October 1981).

Gatton, Joseph A.
Three Ohio counties develop a communications network. VII, 4 (July 1980).

Giddis, W. J.
Rural community education development. IX, 1 (October 1981).

Godwin, Douglas C.
Focusing on the family. X, 1 (October 1982).

Gorski, Mary Lou
Community education and the disabled community—a perfect match in Minnesota. XII, 2 (January 1985).

Graham, Governor Robert
Community education in Florida. VIII, 4 (July 1981).

Gratton, Margaret
Step to the music you hear: a community education story. VI, 3 (December 1978).

Greenwood, Gordon E.
School advisory committees: the Florida experience. IX, 3 (April 1982).

Green, James L.
The HEW community education advisory council: its mission, its members. VII, 1 (September 1979).

Gregg, Gloria A.
Is community education ready for the "information age"? X, 1 (October 1982).
Promises of cooperation: community education and cooperative extension. VI, 5 (June 1979).

Gregg, Keith
Inservice training for community educators. X, 4 (July 1983).

Grieshop, James
Promises of cooperation: community education and cooperative extension. VI, 5 (June 1979).

Gunther, John J.
Why community education appeals to mayors. VI, 5 (June 1979).

Hall, Burnis
Detroit community councils take on the problem of police presence in the schools. VI, 4 (March 1979).

Halperin, Samuel
A new agenda for those who would lead. XI, 3 (April 1984).

Hansen, Gregory D.
A school-community planning process. IX, 4 (July 1982).

Hantel, Ed
School-community partnership: what motivates the partners? XIII, 3 (April 1986).

Hargreaves, David
Community education: the need for a political philosophy. XII, 4 (July 1985).

Harpaz, Yardena
An experiment in Israel. XI, 2 (January 1984).

Harrison, William A. Jr.
State legislators: tight-fisted and skeptical—but interested. XIII, 2 (January 1986).

Harris, Ian
An undergraduate degree program for urban residents. VI, 4 (March 1979).

Hartwig, Linda
Inservice training for community educators. X, 4 (July 1983).

Haulman, April
Cooperation saves a community program. XI, 1 (October 1983).

Hechinger, Fred M.
The case against slamming the schoolhouse door. VII, 4 (July 1980).

Heidt, Elizabeth J.
Using CETA grants to develop a nursing aide training center through adult education. VI, 5 (June 1979).

Herrity, Joseph P.
The time is right for collaboration. XI, 3 (April 1984).

Hetrick, William
The community education director—key to the future. XIII, 1 (October 1985).

Hickey, Howard W.
The advantages of being on the margin. XI, 1 (October 1983).

Highfield, Del
Proving our claims. IX, 4 (July 1982).

Hillenbrand, Bernard F.
Community education: a way for counties to improve services. VII, 3 (April 1980).

Hinojosa, David
Melting pot or salad bowl? XI, 4 (July 1984).

Holliday, Albert E.
Communicating with your council. VIII, 3 (April 1981).

Hoyt, Kenneth
A career education perspective on business-education partnerships. XIII, 4 (July 1986).

Hubbell, Ned S.
Community education—the key to broader public support for public schools. VIII, 1 (October 1980).

Hurst, Ellen Horiuchi
Essential skills for facilitators. X, 4 (July 1983).

Hutton, Rebecca
Collaboration: problems and opportunities. VII, 4 (July 1980).

Hyatt, Norman F.
The case of the uncertified mechanic. VIII, 3 (April 1981).
The stewardship model. IX, 3 (April 1982).

Indelicato, Gerard T.
Community involvement and academic achievement: a positive combination. VII, 4 (July 1980).
The community school: one model of participatory management. VI, 3 (December 1978).

Ivy, Tamra
Certification would change community education in fundamental ways. XII, 1 (October 1984).

Jambor, Tim
A community builds a playground. X, 2 (January 1983).

James, Betty Harris
The Shawnee community education center: a success story from two perspectives. VI, 1 (July 1978).

Jenkins, Judith M.
The funding game: playing to win. VII, 2 (January 1980).

Jensen, Carl
Learning and sharing at the world conference. X, 3 (April 1983).
Statewide public involvement: a Utah priority for community education. VI, 3 (December 1978).

Jewell, Starla
Using technology. IX, 4 (July 1982).

Johnson, Deke
Cooperating in Oklahoma. IX, 1 (October 1981).

Johnson, Vivienne
Community involvement in a Native American project. VIII, 3 (April 1981).

Johnson, W. Frank
State aid boosts community school construction. VII, 2 (January 1980).

Jonas, Sharon L.
The advantages of partnerships. XII, 1 (October 1984).

Jones, E. Terrence
Saving the cities through community education: a caveat. VIII, 1 (October 1980).

Kaplan, Michael H.
Citizens in public education: five levels of participation. VI, 3 (December 1978).
Collaborating to serve the handicapped. XI, 1 (October 1983).

Kerensky, Vasil M.
Re-framing the questions. X, 1 (October 1982).
Ten educational myths: a community educator's perspective. VIII, 2 (January 1981).
Two state legislators emerge as community education leaders in Florida. XIII, 4 (July 1986).

Kersey, Katherine C.
The dilemma of the child. XII, 3 (April 1985).

Khan, Fern June
A community college examines its community. XI, 2 (January 1984).

Khan, M. Adil
Education in Vanuatu: the legacy of colonialism. XII, 1 (October 1984).
Initiative in Zakiganj. X, 3 (April 1983).

Khan, Sharafat
Educating the community about hazards and disasters. XII, 1 (October 1984).

Kildee, Congressman Dale E.
The Community Schools and Comprehensive Community Education Act of 1978. VI, 1 (July 1978).

Killian, Michael
Community power structures and the beginning community educator. VI, 3 (December 1978).

Kimmel, Carol
The HEW community education advisory council: its mission, its members. VII, 1 (September 1979).

Kirschenstein, Joel
A community advisory committee helps plan a new school. VII, 1 (September 1979).

Kliminski, George
. . . but maybe that's good for us. X, 1 (October 1982).

Klugerman, Phyllis
The mentally retarded as learners: a realistic goal. XII, 2 (January 1985).

Knox, Douglas R.
Community education in the 1980s. VIII, 4 (July 1981).

Koneya, Mele
How to "chair" a public meeting. IX, 1 (October 1981).

Kowalski, Theodore J.
Does comprehension of community education lead to adoption? XI, 1 (October 1983).
Organizational climate and community education. XI, 4 (July 1984).

Lindner, Barbara
Growing state control of education requires a fresh look at "community involvement." XIII, 2 (January 1986).

Lockhart, Barbetta L.
Community education and the urban Indian. VII, 4 (July 1980).

Lohr, Cherie
Principals and patrons: models for school partnerships. XIII, 3 (April 1986).

Lombard, James S.
The community educator and collective bargaining. VIII, 1 (October 1980).

Long, Jerry A.
The Holtville experience: community education in Alabama, 1938–1951. VIII, 4 (July 1981).

Long, Roberta
What's in community education for the elementary school teacher? VI, 5 (June 1979).

Loughran, Elizabeth L.
Networking, coordination, cooperation, and collaboration. IX, 4 (July 1982).
Toward a definition of community education. VII, 3 (April 1980).

Lowry, Jim
"A practical concept whose time has come." XI, 2 (January 1984).

Lueder, Don
School-community partnership: what motivates the partners? XIII, 3 (April 1986).

Lyday, W. Jackson
A "new" community center in South Carolina: a study in adaptive reuse. XI, 4 (July 1984).
La educación de la communidad. VI, 2 (October 1978).

Lynn, Mary Ann
Metro revival or urban decline? X, 4 (July 1983).

Mabery, LeRoy
Community education principles are incorporated into school board philosophy of education. VII, 4 (July 1980).

MacKenzie, Donald
Ernest [Melby] at 91. X, 2 (January 1983).

Mackett, Muriel
The labor of leisure. X, 4 (July 1983).

Maher, Robert
Leadership training for high school students: the first steps to adulthood. XII, 4 (July 1985).

Maiberger, G.L.
Rural community education development. IX, 1 (October 1981).

Marten, Elizabeth
Work-a-day: an experiment in school-community cooperation. VI, 4 (March 1979).

Maskel, Shary
Sesame Street comes to Goochland. VIII, 4 (July 1981).

Matheson, Governor Scott M.
Community-based planning. IX, 4 (July 1982).

Mathias, Senator Charles McC. Jr.
Belt-tightening time may present unique opportunities for community education. VII, 4 (July 1980).

Mayhew, Thomas
A rural community council network. VII, 2 (January 1980).

McBroom, Lavonne
A neighborhood park is born. IX, 1 (October 1981).

McCafferty, Arthur N.
Marketing (not "selling") your program. IX, 3 (April 1982).

McClellan, Carole
The HEW community education advisory council: its mission, its members. VIII, 1 (September 1979).

McClelland, Averil E.
Synergy and community education. IX, 2 (January 1982).

McConn, Sister Ann Rene
SNAP and the city. VIII, 1 (October 1980).

McDill, Edward
The responsiveness of schools. IX, 2 (January 1982).

McDowell, Dawn
Good PR begins at home. VIII, 3 (April 1981).

McKenzie, Floretta Dukes
The community as K-12 partner. X, 1 (October 1982).

McMurray, Larry E.
A school-community planning process. IX, 4 (July 1982).

McPartland, James
The responsiveness of schools. IX, 2 (January 1982).

Medlin, Carl
A "new" community center in South Carolina: a study in adaptive reuse. XI, 4 (July 1984).

Mendell, Jay S.
In search of a new social context. XI, 1 (October 1983).

Merenda, Daniel
Community education and volunteerism: the difference is mainly historical. XIII, 4 (July 1986).

Messner, David
"Investing in wellness"—a school-wide inservice program. XIII, 4 (July 1986).

Meszaros, Murray I.
Building level coordinators—how they spend their time. IX, 4 (July 1982).
Community education in Alberta. XI, 2 (January 1984).

Miguel, Joe
Convincing by example. X, 1 (October 1982).
Report from Alaska: personnel development as a statewide project. VIII, 2 (January 1981).

Mihalik, Brian J.
"Just a new name for recreation." XI, 2 (January 1984).

Miller, Rex
Certification: what community educators think. VI, 5 (June 1979).
Serving the older student. VIII, 2 (January 1981).

Miller, Sidney L.
See also Fallon, S.L.M.
How community leaders perceive the issues. VIII, 3 (April 1981).

Mills, Helene
Working with teachers to connect the curriculum and the community. XIII, 2 (January 1986).

Minzey, Jack D.
Beyond economics: redefining a core curriculum. XII, 4 (July 1985).
Emerging leadership in community education. X, 4 (July 1983).
Facing up (again) to the hard questions. X, 1 (October 1982).
Frank Manley and Loyd Tireman—pioneers in community education. XIII, 3 (April 1986).

Morris, Ellen C.
Some model programs. XII, 3 (April 1985).

Morten, Heler
Does community education training enhance the employability of candidates for school superintendent? XIII, 4 (July 1986).

Moyer, Kerry L.
The public school and community involvement. IX, 1 (October 1981).

Mullarney, Patrick
The community school: one model of participatory management. VI, 3 (December 1978).

Murk, Peter J.
The Muncie, Indiana, academy for community leadership. VI, 5 (June 1979).

Murphy, Lee
Community education for adults with handicaps. VII, 4 (July 1980).

Murphy, Pauline
Creative responses to community crisis. X, 3 (April 1983).

Nance, Everette E.
The center scene—a lively network. VI, 2 (October 1978).
Community education and the urban dilemma. VIII, 1 (October 1980).
The need for dialogue. X, 1 (October 1982).

Nelsen, Martha M.
School-based development enterprise: a natural for community education. XII, 4 (July 1985).

Nielsen, Lloyd C.
Three key relationships in community education planning. VIII, 2 (January 1981).

Nine supporters explain what they like about community education. XIII, 2 (January 1986).

Nystrom, Dennis
Community education for adults with handicaps. VII, 4 (July 1980).

Oberg, Terry J.
The case of the widening gap. XII, 2 (January 1985).
Coping with crises. XIII, 1 (October 1985).

O'Donnell, Carolyn A.
Applications of telecommunications. IX, 2 (January 1982).
Community involvement in a Native American project. VIII, 3 (April 1981).

Olejnik, Stephen F.
School advisory committees: the Florida experience. IX, 3 (April 1982).

Ollie, Leslie
Inservice training for community educators. X, 4 (July 1983).

Olsen, Burton K.
Building level coordinators—how they spend their time. IX, 4 (July 1982).

Olsen, Clarence R.
Inservice training for community educators. X, 4 (July 1983).

Olson, Janice
Concepts of aging in the K-12 curriculum. XIII, 3 (April 1986).

Olson, Stanley J.
The growing demand for involvement—how will the schools respond? XI, 3 (April 1984).

Orr, Paul
American overseas schools: some lessons returned to their source. XIII, 3 (April 1986).

Outman, Robert
How to calculate electrical utility costs. VIII, 4 (July 1981).

Ovard, Glen
A community advisory committee helps plan a new school. VII, 1 (September 1979).

Paddock, Susan C.
Can change happen in schools? X, 2 (January 1983).
Cooperative learning. VIII, 4 (July 1981).
Data collection in community education: a simple model. VI, 2 (October 1978).
Don't forget the parents! VIII, 3 (April 1981).
Humanizing high tech. X, 4 (July 1983).
Needed: systematic research on supportive programs for early adolescents. IX, 1 (October 1981).
Notes from a proposal reader. VII, 1 (September 1979).
On creating communities. X, 1 (October 1982).
Strategic planning. IX, 3 (April 1982).
Teaching adults. IX, 2 (January 1982).

Page, Ann C.
Child care and the public schools: a report from Tennessee. XI, 4 (July 1984).

Paine, Jane K.
Community women: issues, needs, and options. VIII, 2 (January 1981).

Parker, Bobby E. Jr.
Cutting costs: little savings add up. VIII, 4 (July 1981).
Evaluation in Texas. VI, 5 (June 1979).
Who is the community educator? VII, 2 (January 1980).

Parson, Steve R.
All-America cities and community education. VIII, 2 (January 1981).
The antidote to isolation. X, 1 (October 1982).
Current staffing patterns will be the downfall of community education. VII, 2 (January 1980).
The hot potato. VIII, 4 (July 1981).
On the way to process. X, 3 (April 1983).
Promises of cooperation: community education and cooperative extension. VI, 5 (June 1979).

Patten, W. George
New—and realistic—dimensions for adult basic education. VII, 1 (September 1979).

Pavlovich, Michael
Relevant mathematics for community living. VI, 5 (June 1979).

Penland, Patrick R.
The public library as a community resource. IX, 1 (October 1981).

Perry, David L.
Time management for community education administration. VII, 1 (September 1979).

Piele, Philip K.
People and politics in an electronic age. X, 4 (July 1983).

Pierce, William F.
Public schools need community education's leadership style now. XI, 3 (April 1984).
The view from the states. XIII, 2 (January 1986).

Piotrowski, Lou J.
Community education and the status quo. X, 2 (January 1983).

Podemski, Richard S.
The give and take of criticism. XIII, 3 (April 1986).
Using praise as an organizational tool. XII, 1 (October 1984).

Poster, Cyril
Community education worldwide. X, 3 (April 1983).

Powell, Conrad
A community approach to the development of educational policy. XI, 4 (July 1984).

Prout, Peter
Bionic bodies or systemic programs: a decision in training. VI, 5 (June 1979).

Radig, John
School-municipal cooperation. IX, 3 (April 1982).

Ratz, Kim
Report from Alaska: personnel development as a statewide project. VIII, 2 (January 1981).

Reed, Horace B.
Maintenance or social change? IX, 4 (July 1982).
Toward a definition of community education. VII, 3 (April 1980).

Reen, Terry
A cooperative program addresses child abuse and neglect. VIII, 4 (July 1981).

Reese, Harry
The center as an umbrella for citizen participation projects. VI, 5 (June 1979).

Reidy, Robert Jr.
The community school: one model of participatory management. VI, 3 (December 1978).

Reithmiller, Peggy M.
The limitations of community education (and a vision of what it might become). VI, 4 (March 1979).

Reitz, Larry
The National Community Education Clearinghouse. VII, 1 (September 1979).

Richmond, Jayne
A model for collaboration in human service delivery. XII, 1 (October 1984).

Riles, Wilson
Cooperation is the key. IX, 4 (July 1982).

Ringers, Joseph Jr.
Supervision in community schools. VII, 2 (January 1980).

Rivera, William
A beginner's guide to fund-seeking. VIII, 4 (July 1981).

Robinson, Lawrence
The National Alliance of Black Community Educators. VI, 4 (March 1979).

Rogan, Boyd
Serving the whole community. XII, 2 (January 1985).

Rogers, J. Keith
The stewardship model. IX, 3 (April 1982).

Rohrer, Hugh
A rural community council network. VII, 2 (January 1980).

Ross, Nancy J.
Excerpts from a community educator's log. XII, 2 (January 1985).
The Shawnee community education center: a success story from two perspectives. VI, 1 (July 1978).
What is it about community education . . . XIII, 4 (July 1986).

Ruiz, Eleazar M.
Counseling their peers. IX, 2 (January 1982).

Rumberger, Russell W.
The new jobs. X, 4 (July 1983).

Sato, Susan R.
A community-based teacher education program. XI, 2 (January 1984).

Saulman, Sharon A.
Marketing: a systematic way of responding to changing needs. XII, 1 (October 1984).

Sayers, Susan
Statewide public involvement: a Utah priority for community education. VI, 3 (December 1978).

Schmitt, Donna M.
The community educator and collective bargaining. VIII, 1 (October 1980).
Retraining K-12 teachers to work with adult learners. XII, 1 (October 1984).
The growing demand for involvement—how will the schools respond? XI, 3 (April 1984).

Schoeny, Donna Hager
The advantages of partnerships. XII, 1 (October 1984).
Community education and K-12: making the connection. X, 1 (October 1982).
The community education impact project. X, 4 (July 1983).
Multicultural and community education: critical linkages. VI, 2 (January 1980).
The principal and the community. VIII, 3 (April 1981).

Scholla, Gary
Minnesota community educators celebrate 10 years of growth. VII, 4 (July 1980).

Schott, Charles J.
Vandalism and the community school—a closer look at the research. XII, 4 (July 1985).

Scofield, Richard T.
Child care and the public schools: a report from Tennessee. XI, 4 (July 1984).

Scott, Clarke C.
All-America cities and community education. VIII, 2 (January 1981).

Semple, Barry
The HEW community education advisory council: its mission, its members. VIII, 1 (September 1979).
State aid boosts community school construction. VII, 2 (January 1980).

Senesh, Lawrence
Redefining the educational environment. XII, 3 (April 1985).

Serota, Gary
Microcomputers and the delivery of human services. IX, 4 (July 1982).

Sexton, Michael J.
Honest participatory management with community councils. VII, 3 (April 1980).

Shaw, June
A neighborhood park is born. IX, 1 (October 1981).

Shechtman, Stephen A.
Parents and schools. IX, 2 (January 1982).

Sheckley, Barry
Finding the money where it's not supposed to be. VI, 5 (June 1979).

Sherman, Joel D.
Financing the future. X, 4 (July 1983).

Sherwood, John L.
The origins of nomad schools. X, 2 (January 1983).

Shiffrin, Mark A.
Community educators as brokers and entrepreneurs. IX, 4 (July 1982).

Shirk, John C.
The public library as a community resource. IX, 1 (October 1981).

Shoop, Robert J.
Avoiding liability. IX, 3 (April 1982).
The case of the lost opportunity. IX, 1 (October 1981).
Censorship—who decides? X, 2 (January 1983).
Child abuse. X, 4 (July 1983).
Child abuse: intervention and prevention strategies. XI, 1 (October 1983).
Competition with the private sector. X, 1 (October 1982).
Defamation: two sides of the coin. XI, 2 (January 1984).
A double standard. XI, 3 (April 1984).
The Equal Access Act of 1984. XII, 3 (April 1985).
Grand Rapids school district v. Ball. XIII, 2 (January 1986).
The Hatch amendment: boon or bane? XII, 4 (July 1985).
The hospice: a caring community. VIII, 1 (October 1980).
Law as a bridge between schools and communities. IX, 4 (July 1982).
Liability for negligence can't be waived. XII, 1 (October 1984).
Liability insurance: a worsening crisis. XIII, 4 (July 1986).
A model for collaboration in human service delivery. XII, 1 (October 1984).
Off-air videotaping and the law. XIII, 1 (October 1985).
Remember, we're not selling snake oil. VII, 3 (April 1980).
The role of community education in the battle of beliefs. XIII, 3 (April 1986).

Shoop continued
Sexual harassment in the workplace. XI, 4 (July 1984).
Some things you don't ask. X, 3 (April 1983).

Siler, Frederic G. Jr.
Community education and correctional programming. XII, 2 (January 1985).

Silvestri, Kenneth
Revitalizing American educational reform. VII, 3 (April 1980).

Simmons, Phil R. Jr.
Enrollments and funding: a longitudinal look at a local project. VIII, 2 (January 1981).

Smith, Bill Gene
Making schools effective: a role for citizens. XI, 3 (April 1984).

Smyth, Paul R.
The foot patrol officer, the community, and the school. XI, 1 (October 1983).

Soloman, James L. Jr.
City council and the school board are working together in Columbia, South Carolina. VII, 4 (July 1980).

Somebody who cares. XI, 4 (July 1984).

Sorby, Mariam
Using CETA grants to develop a nursing aide training center through adult education. VI, 5 (June 1979).

Sorter, Bruce W.
Informed leadership networking. X, 4 (July 1983).

Speeter, Greg
A case for confrontation in the '80s. X, 2 (January 1983).

Stalcup, Robert J.
Preparing community education administrators: a case of nothing new. VII, 3 (April 1980).

Steinkemeyer, Elaine
The special role of parents. XII, 3 (April 1985).

Stenning, Walter F.
Evaluation in Texas. VI, 5 (June 1979).
Who is the community educator? VII, 2 (January 1980).

Stewart, Warren
Private and public ventures in community education. X, 3 (April 1983).

Stuckman, Ralph
Three Ohio counties develop a communications network. VII, 4 (July 1980).

Szoke, Helen
Working class youth drama. X, 3 (April 1983).

Tabourne, Carla E. Sayers
All seniors are special. XI, 1 (October 1983).

Talbot, Walter D.
The HEW community education advisory council: its mission, its members. VIII, 1 (September 1979).

Thigpin, Carol
NCSEACE gets off to a good start. VI, 2 (October 1978).
Youth unemployment. IX, 2 (January 1982).

Thomas, M. Donald
It's time for community education to be a full-fledged member of the education family. XI, 2 (January 1984).

Thornton, Ray
Together is better. X, 2 (January 1983).

Toppings, John C. Jr.
Community educators as brokers and entrepreneurs. IX, 4 (July 1982).

Trojanowicz, Robert C.
The foot patrol officer, the community, and the school. XI, 1 (October 1983).

Tune, Robert
Citizens in public education: five levels of participation. VI, 3 (December 1978).

Van Antwerp, David
Evaluation in Texas. VI, 5 (June 1979).
Honest participatory management with community councils. VII, 3 (April 1980).
Who is the community educator? VII, 2 (January 1980).

Venable, William R.
Community education in urban America: survey findings and implications. VIII, 1 (October 1980).

Vento, Vincent A.
Does comprehension of community education lead to adoption? XI, 1 (October 1983).
Organizational climate and community education. XI, 4 (July 1984).
Planning and pacing performance. XIII, 1 (October 1985).

Wagschal, Peter H.
The electronic family. X, 4 (July 1983).

Walker, John E.
Conflicting job and family demands: striking a balance. VII, 2 (January 1980).
School-age child care: the need is clear, and community educators can meet it. XIII, 2 (January 1986).
Who supports public schools? X, 3 (April 1983).

Wall, Christopher
"Investing in wellness"—a school-wide inservice program. XIII, 4 (July 1986).

Walsh, Mark M.
Involvement is our central purpose. VI, 4 (March 1979).

Warden, John
Community education as a movement. XI, 1 (October 1983).
Community education as a political act? VII, 3 (April 1980).
Outside influences on community education. XII, 2 (January 1985).

Warren, Lee
To make a difference. XII, 3 (April 1985).

Wear, Delese W.
Community education: the need for a sound theoretical base. XIII, 3 (April 1986).
Public schools and the private sector: taking a closer look. XI, 3 (April 1984).
What teachers think of community education. X, 1 (October 1982).

Weaver, Donald C.
A case for professional performance standards for community leaders. VI, 2 (October 1978).
Educating the community about hazards and disasters. XII, 1 (October 1984).

Weir, Kenneth L.
How to improve your publications. VIII, 3 (April 1981).

Weiss, Eileen
CETA: a possible solution. VII, 3 (April 1980).

Welton, Gary
Why people participate in community education activities. XII, 4 (July 1985).

Wendel, Frederick C.
Improving interpersonal communications. XIII, 1 (October 1985).

West, Joan E.
The renaissance of community education. VIII, 2 (January 1981).

West, Philip T.
A burnt-out case. XII, 1 (October 1984).
Business as usual? IX, 2 (January 1982).
The closing. VIII, 2 (January 1981).
Community education as public relations. VIII, 3 (April 1981).
Confidence and competence. XIII, 1 (October 1985).
Envisioning the future. X, 4 (July 1983).
First come, first served. X, 3 (April 1983).
Have project, will travel. XII, 3 (April 1985).
Learning to live with technology. X, 4 (July 1983).
Marketing the whole person. XIII, 1 (October 1985).
"None of your business, please!" XIII, 3 (April 1986).
Nothing is as it appears. XIII, 1 (October 1985).
Pandora's box. XII, 4 (July 1985).
Rekindling professional enthusiasm. XIII, 1 (October 1985).

West continued
The renaissance of community education. VIII, 2 (January 1981).

Wherry, John
The question of public confidence. VIII, 3 (April 1981).

Whetten, Clifford J.
Cutting costs: little savings add up. VIII, 4 (July 1981).
Getting involved with K-12. VIII, 3 (April 1981).

Widmer, Emmy Lou
Nurturing the young: a challenge to community education. XI, 1 (October 1983).

Wiley, Stu
An affirmative approach to delinquency prevention. XI, 1 (October 1983).

Wilhoit, Gene
Critical issues in community education. IX, 4 (July 1982).
State board members: a central policy-making role. XIII, 2 (January 1986).

Williams, David C.
Community development through community education. VIII, 4 (July 1981).

Williams, Senator Harrison A.
The Community Schools and Comprehensive Community Education Act of 1978. VI, 1 (July 1978).

Wilson, George T.
Gray alert. VI, 5 (June 1979).

Winecoff, Larry
A community approach to the development of educational policy. XI, 4 (July 1984).

Winecoff continued
La educación de la communidad. VI, 2 (October 1978).

Wolfe, Michael
Principals and patrons: models for school partnerships. XIII, 3 (April 1986).

Wood, George
The national evaluation: some findings, implications, and uses. VI, 4 (March 1979).

Wood, Janice A.
"Help with homework" hotline—a joint venture in Florida. XI, 2 (January 1984).

Worrest, Henry N.
Settlement houses—pioneers in community education. VII, 1 (September 1979).

Wright, Bobby
The development of American Indian community education: its roots and revival. VIII, 2 (January 1981).

Young, Malcolm B.
Facing up to the hard questions. IX, 4 (July 1982).
The national evaluation: some findings, implications, and uses. VI, 4 (March 1979).

Zemlo, John S.
School advisory committees: the Florida experience. IX, 3 (April 1982).

Zimmermann, Ulrike
Working with migrants in West Berlin, X, 3 (April 1983).

Zucker, Jacob
Cooperating in Oklahoma. IX, 1 (October 1981).

◆ MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION ◆

NATIONAL COMMUNITY EDUCATION ASSOCIATION
119 North Payne Street, Alexandria, VA 22314 (703) 683-NCEA

NAME _____

TITLE/POSITION _____

INSTITUTION/AGENCY/DEPARTMENT _____

STREET ADDRESS _____

CITY, STATE, ZIP _____ DAYTIME PHONE (_____) _____

☐ Full Membership—$75
Includes subscriptions to newsletter and journal; member discounts on publications and convention; voting privileges; Resource Directory, etc.

☐ Institutional Membership—$175
Includes three subscriptions to newsletter and journal; member discounts on publications and convention; voting privileges for one person; Resource Directory, etc.

☐ Local Affiliate (Council) Membership—$65
Fifteen copies of monthly newsletter mailed to one address; member discounts on publications and convention, etc.

Indicate form of payment:

☐ My check, payable to NCEA, is enclosed.
(International applicants pay in U.S dollar equivalent)

☐ Bill me.

☐ Charge to my credit card:

☐ VISA ☐ MasterCard ☐ Choice

Card # _____

Expiration date _____

Signature _____
(All charge orders must be signed)